In regard to para 4 supra, there is another file regarding the conversion of 5 Minor Rural Councils including that of Anekal into Town Municipal Council. The file has been submitted to-day with the draft notifications for approval.

According to the foot-note made under Memorandum 2 of the G.O. referred to above, there will be recognised as constituencies, after they have been declared as Town Municipalities, the electorates which will be formed from the voters direct and both from the among the Rural Councillors. So if the constituencies of the Rural Council is different the electorates of the Rural Council will not matter.

Sir,

In submitting herewith report No.157 of 1923-24 dated 5th November 1923 from the President, Anekal Municipal Council, I have the honor to state that it has been decided by Government to convert Anekal and a few other minor Municipalities into Town Municipalities. The term of the present Anekal minor Municipal Council is due to expire on 5th February 1924 and the list of voters and candidates as applicable to that minor Municipality has already been published in accordance with the election rules in force for minor Municipalities

Now that the minor Municipality will be converted into a Town Municipality, the lists of voters and candidates will naturally have to be revised and republished. The strength of the Municipal Council will also have to be revised in accordance with the proviso of section 10(1) of the Municipal Regulation

In these circumstances I solicit instructions of Government in the matter

I have the honor to be,
